Alpha Pi Chapter at Washington & Jefferson College

Overview

In this edition of the Alpha Pi Chapter newsletter, we're excited to share the many ways our brothers at Washington & Jefferson College have been making an impact both on and off campus. Inside, you'll find highlights of internships our brothers participated in over the past year, a recap of our chapter's philanthropy efforts, and details on upcoming events—including our Homecoming alumni gathering and the annual Alpha Pi 5K. We'll also showcase our brothers' involvement across campus, recognize the graduating seniors from the Class of 2025, proudly introduce the newest members who have joined our fraternity family, shine a spotlight on some Alumni accomplishments, and showcase the current exec board.

Letter to the Graduated Seniors of 2025

Congratulations to the Seniors of the Alpha Pi Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega!

We are so proud of each of you for reaching this milestone. Your leadership, dedication, and brotherhood have left a lasting impact on the Chapter and every brother in it. The chapter would not be what it is today without your contributions.

Wishing you success and fulfillment in all that lies ahead.

Love & Respect,

Keeping up with Alumni

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan

Over the summer, recent graduate Gannon Ryan got married. Many brothers from the chapter attended his wedding and had a great time! Congratulations Gannon and Jennifer Ryan!

Alan Bradstock Inducted into W&J Athletics HOF

Alan Bradstock '86 has been selected for induction into the Washington & Jefferson College Athletic Hall of Fame Class of 2025. A standout center for the Presidents, he scored 1,219 career points and helped lead W&J to its first NCAA Division III Tournament appearance in 1985. Bradstock was a two-time All-PAC honoree and remains one of the program's most consistent scorers and rebounders.

Don Murray and Dan Baierl Receives Shoutout from W&J College

Washington & Jefferson College's Alpha Tau Omega alumni show that brotherhood extends far beyond campus. Don Murray '64 and his classmates from the 1960s began annual Memorial Day reunions in 1977, and the tradition has continued every year since. Their gatherings, which now include families, have grown into lifelong connections through weddings, funerals, trips, and holidays. Inspired by their example, alumni from the 1980s have started building a reunion tradition of their own. Daniel Baierl '85 emphasizes that these friendships model the lasting impact of Greek Life, offering mentorship and support to future generations. For both groups, Alpha Tau Omega created not just college memories, but a foundation for lifelong bonds and chosen family.

Will Keber starts Roar'n Soccer

Alumnus Will Keber '22 founded Roar'n Soccer, a youth soccer program that offers a variety of services for children of all ages. Their mission is to provide a fun and safe environment where kids can learn and develop their soccer skills. These experienced coaches are dedicated to helping each child reach their full potential by providing personalized attention and guidance. Other ATO Alumni help coach the program as well! Alumni Tyler Haczela '25, Jacob Lee '23, and Nolan Agostoni '25 are all assistant coaches for the program.
